Dear Parent/Carer,

Woolwich Carnival – Saturday 14th September – Year 4 children taking part!

Once again, Plumcroft Year 4 children have been invited to be part of Woolwich Carnival.

Woolwich Carnival is a joyful event that celebrates the creativity, diversity and community spirit of our local area. Plumcroft will participate in the parade which will be followed by musical performances, craft and food stalls, and a range of entertainments – all in the centre of Woolwich. The whole family is welcome to join in and enjoy.

Next week, your child will have costume making and dance workshops. We need plenty of large cereal boxes. Please bring these into school if you can!

On Saturday 14th September, please bring your child to the meeting place in the Royal Arsenal, Woolwich SE18 4DX at 12.30pm. Please meet near to the metal statues of people, which are next to the River Thames.

The procession will finish up in General Gordon Square by approximately 2.30pm. We hope that you will stay at the carnival for food and entertainments for the rest of the afternoon!

Please note that an adult must be responsible for your child at all times during this event.

Please complete the slip below if you plan to bring your child to Woolwich Carnival.

My child _____ class _____ will be attending Woolwich Carnival on Saturday 14th September.

I will bring my child to the meeting place at 12.30pm. An adult will remain responsible for my child throughout the event.
