Dear Parent/Carer,

Woolwich Carnival - 22nd September - Year 4 children taking part!

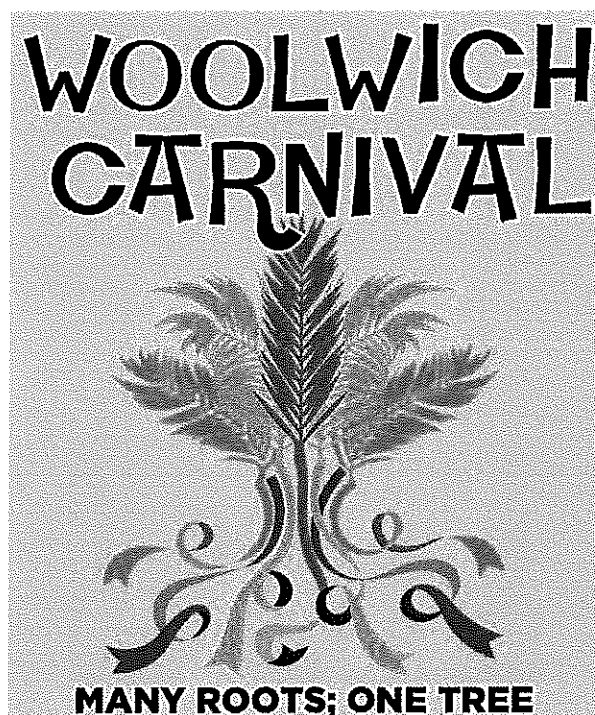

For the fourth year running, Plumcroft Year 4 children have been invited to be part of Woolwich Carnival. Woolwich Carnival is a joyful event that celebrates the creativity, diversity and community spirit of our local area. Plumcroft will participate in the fantastic parade which will be followed by musical performances, craft and food stalls, and a range of entertainments - all in the centre of Woolwich. Over the next two weeks, your children will have costume making, drumming or dance workshops. We will need plenty of cereal boxes, crisp packets, 4 pint milk cartons and coloured plastic carrier bags. Please bring these items into school!

On Saturday 22nd September, you will be asked to bring your child to the meeting place in the Royal Arsenal at 12.30pm. Further information about the meeting place will follow shortly. The procession will finish by approximately 3pm. We hope that you will stay at the carnival for food and entertainments for the rest of the afternoon!

Please note that an adult must be responsible for your child at all times during this event.

Please complete the slip below if you plan to bring your child to Woolwich Carnival.

Best wishes,
The Year 4 team.
