

Learning intention (LI) Can I use co-ordinating conjunctions?

Success criteria (SC) I can use conjunctions to join 2 sentences of equal weighting.

I can understand what a compound sentence is.

I can identify which conjunction is needed, to create a compound sentence.

I can explain what a co-ordinating conjunction is.

1. Have a look at this video about conjunctions:

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p054flgy>

2. Turn these sentences into one compound sentence, by using a conjunction.
 - I wanted to play outside but it was raining.
 - Gemma was feeling really tired so she went to bed.
 - I like to watch gymnastics but I cannot do any of the moves.
 - Lisa fell over and she bumped her head.
3. I wanted to go to the beach but Dad said that we could not go today.
4. Have a look at the picture. Can you say or write 4 compound sentences, using conjunctions?

so	and	but	or
----	-----	-----	----