

Write a paragraph finishing one of these lines. You can decide where your character is and what happens. Make sure you are clear on how your character is feeling and remember to SHOW the reader, don't tell them!

Sid looked out into the dark and crept round the corner...

Tia opened the door and...

Could you make up one of your own?